

Savannah Michele Smith, daughter of John and Tonia Smith, is a senior at BWHS.

For the past two years, she has been a member of Student Council and currently serves as the President of both the Spanish Club and Aguila Amigas, which provides translation for our Spanish speaking students during class if needed. Savannah's involvement and dedication to our school also includes being a member of our Best Buddies Program, Leo Club, and Principal's Leadership Team. She has also been an Eagle's First Flight mentor to help transition students from 8th grade into the high school environment. She is a member of National Honor Society, Spanish Honor Society and is a National Merit semi-finalist. She is also a candidate to apply for the Presidential Scholars Program sponsored by The Department of Education.

She carries a GPA of 4.395 and is preparing for her last lacrosse season of her high school career. After graduation, she plans to study Political Science at the University of Dayton. With a degree in Public Administration, her goal is to work in the non-profit management field.

Staff members all recognize Savannah's leadership by saying making similar statements:

"Savannah is a wonderful young lady as well as an amazing student. She works hard in school, and can be counted on to help others and her community."

"She is the President of the Spanish Club this year. She plans and coordinates all of our club activities. She also has been great during each Eagle Time to tutor and assist my Spanish II students each week."

"Savannah is an exceptional leader and embodies all of our Eagle Strong attributes. Savannah is involved in many activities and leadership positions within our school. She is a great role model for our younger students."

Congratulations Savannah!
