

Your 2021 Member Benefits Summary

Prepared for Big Walnut Local on 12/9/2021

Member Services

At OSBA, we are proud to be the only association in Ohio specifically for school boards and their members. Although many things have changed over the years, OSBA's commitment to its members and public education has stood firm. OSBA continues to supply innovative professional development to expand the leadership ability of its membership. OSBA is committed to be your leading resource in education. We are compelled to ensure that you, as board members, are kept up-to-date of the best opportunities to serve your districts.

Activities on behalf of membership in 2021 include:

- Facilitated the Coronavirus/COVID 19 Response repository, highlighting resources to assist districts in facing the challenges of the pandemic.
- Worked with ODE and the Governor to express districts thoughts and needs around school reopening plans, and pandemic response methodologies.
- Lobbyists continued to work on revamping the state report cards and dismantling the Academic Distress Commission.
- Hosted the weekly Zoom for 2, providing expert insights on hot topics in public education as determined.

Policy Services

Be sure to check out our Policy Services at <https://www.ohioschoolboards.org/policy-services>. From staying up to date on the latest policy changes to having your entire policy manual rebuilt, OSBA can help, using the latest in policy hosting technology from BoardDocs.
